

06 Recommendation Letter, Before and After, 72245.docx

0	1 Original	2 Changes
01
	To Whom It May Concern:	To Whom It May Concern:
	As the of of nursing- I strongly recommend, a promising young lady in Grade, for admission to your graduate school of nursing. I mainly took charge of the undergraduate education in nursing, three years' observation and interaction enabled me to make comprehensive assessment for her outstanding academic record, great teaching potential and excellent research ability.	As of Nursing, I strongly recommend, a promising young lady in Grade, for admission to your graduate school of nursing. As  I am responsible for undergraduate education in nursing. I have observed her for three years. This has enabled me to make comprehensive assessment of her outstanding academic record, great teaching potential and excellent research ability.
	is one of the top nursing schools in China, and the undergraduate program is very competitive here. However, Ms distinguished herself in academic record by ranking 2nd in the school with GPA 3.45. In the summer of , Li was elected as student representative to participate in the national academic exchanges launched by Education Alliance. As always, she actively involved in group discussion and proposed her particular academic views by justified and well-grounded argument, which proved her strong ability in analysis and judgement. In terms of her remarkable performance, she won the chance to make a speech on behalf of all the students. Unlike most other students who are trapped by dogma, Li has made it clear her dedication to seeking for truth. She often works till midnight, digging into piles of papers, only to testify her opinions by evidence-based information. I am deeply impressed by her independence, critical thinking and precision.	is one of the top nursing schools in China, and the undergraduate program is very competitive here. Ms distinguished herself by ranking 2nd in the school with GPA 3.45 out of 4. In the summer of , was elected student representative for our school to participate in the national academic exchanges launched by Higher Education Alliance. As always, she was actively involved in group discussions and her academic views were always justified and well-grounded in argument. She has strong abilities in analysis and judgement. As a result she was chosen to address the exchange on behalf of all the students. Unlike many other students who seem trapped by dogma, has made it clear her dedication to seeking for truth. She often works till midnight, digging into piles of papers, and her opinions are all evidence-based. I am deeply impressed by her independence, critical thinking and precision.
	I used to evaluate the Teaching Practice Activities in nursing program, and unique performance tightly caught my eyes. With the help of vivid slides, pictures and videos, she showed her ingenious ideas by elaborate application of different teaching skills like suspense-setting, question-raising as well as case study, and coherently made the class easy	I used to evaluate the Teaching Practice Activities for our nursing program. unique performance caught my eye. With the help of vivid slides, pictures and videos, she showed her ingenious ideas using an elaborate application of different teaching skills like suspense-setting, question-raising as well as case study, and

	and lively with her attractive speech and proper gesture. Her fresh and artistic way of teaching won favorable comments from both teachers and her classmates, and I strongly believe in her huge potential in teaching in the future.	coherently made the class easy and lively with her attractive speech and proper gesture. Her fresh and artistic way of teaching won favorable comments from her teachers and classmates, and I strongly believe in her huge potential in teaching in the future.
	Despite of the heavy task of undergraduate study, willingness of being tempered by practice also challenged her to participate in many research projects, where toil and sweat aided her in conquering the obstacles that her peers were reluctant to confront with. In the summer vocation, instead of having a good rest, she participated in a laboratory research launched by Medical University and won good commends from the professor. She was also actively involved in my research project, in which she mainly took charge of questionnaire survey and data processing. Most recently, is working with a small group of students on another research program related to the survey on the ability of daily living of the elderly in Chengdu communities.	Despite the heavy undergraduate study load, willingly participated in many research projects. Her diligent toil aided her in conquering obstacles that her peers were often reluctant to confront. In the summer vacation, instead of having a good rest, she participated in a laboratory research launched by Medical University winning good compliments from the professor. She also actively involved in my research project, in which she mainly took charge of questionnaire survey and data processing. Most recently, is working with a small group of students on another research program related to the survey on the daily living ability of the elderly in Chengdu.
	is a student with great ambition. Though she was granted the postgraduate recommendation in nursing from our university (less than 6% opportunity), she turned down the offer, and firmly selected to study abroad. I fully understand her, respect and support her choice. Also I am firmly convinced that with her outstanding ability and qualities, she will make a successful graduate student in your school. Your favorable consideration and assistance to her will be very much appreciated. For any further information about, please don't hesitate to contact with me.	 is a student with great ambition. Even though she was granted a postgraduate recommendation in nursing from our university which is offered to less than 6% of our graduates, but she turned down this offer, and elected to study abroad. I fully understand her reasons, respect and support her choice. Also I am firmly convinced that with her outstanding ability and qualities, she will make a successful graduate student in your school. Your favorable consideration and assistance to her will be very much appreciated. For any further information about, please contact me.
	Respectfully, 	Respectfully, 